December 6, 2021 Rhythm Ramblin Christmas
Chairperson for the Day: Judy Holt

We are a local five-piece string band, playing a blended venue of bluegrass, country, gospel, and pop; we've even done square dancing, all with our own original rhythm ramblin', toe-tappin', foot-stompin' beat. Although based in Dayton, Ohio, we have played both in and out of state on occasion. We strive to entertain our audiences with a mix of original arrangements, classic tunes, audience participation, and a ramblin' dialogue. We may even play our instruments once in a while and in the right key, although we don't guarantee it! While it is our hope that you can have fun with us, I guarantee that we'll have fun with you, so we hope you'll join us on this year's production of "A Rhythm Ramblin Christmas.

February 7, 2022 Art Museums and Literacy: Programs for Youth at the Dayton Art Institute
Speaker: Casey Goldman, Lead Museum Educator at the Dayton Art Institute
Chairperson for the day – Linda Parker

“Art Museums and Literacy: Programs for Youth at the Dayton Art Institute” will provide an overview of how DAI meets the developmental and creative needs of younger audiences, insights into the science behind arts-based learning, and an introduction to museum education’s best practices.

Casey Goldman is the Lead Museum Educator at the Dayton Art Institute (DAI). In this role, she oversees the department in the development, implementation, and evaluation of all youth, school, family, and adult programs. Last year, DAI welcomed more than 3,000 K-12 students through the Art+Core Connections field trip program and served more than 1,700 caregivers and young learners through programs such as Tiny Thursdays. Casey completed her Masters of Art in Teaching, with a focus in museum education, at the Corcoran College of Art in Washington D.C. Prior to DAI, Casey held positions at museums such as: Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, The Ringling Museum of Art, Utah Museum of Fine Arts, and The Phillips Collection. Having also worked as a classroom teacher in both public and private schools, Casey is driven by her passions for 21st century learning, arts-integration, and non-formal educational spaces.
